only thing I want to do is give this Body the right to make the determination of the future of these types of colleges.

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: In a public hearing instead of a public hearing by unanimous consent.

PRESIDENT: Well, yes.

SENATOR SYAS: All right then, I'll ask unanimous consent that the public hearing, since I don't have the seven days, that it'll be heard next Wednesday at 12:45. Now, if I can't do it that way, I'll ask 30....to suspend the rules. Now, which can I do?

PRESIDENT: Well, stand by. Senator Carpenter, we think Senator Carpenter needs to refer the resolution first. Now, Senator Carpenter, what's your reference of the resolution?

SENATOR CARPENTER: What's the what?

PRESIDENT: What's the reference....what is the reference of the resolution?

SENATOR CARPENTER: It'll go to the Constitutional Committee and for a public hearing and Senator Syas would like to have it at the same time as the other hearing. And I presume we'll have to suspend the rules if the time is not there in order for him to set it with the other bills. We ought to divide the question and take them separately.

PRESIDENT: Well, that's fine. As long as we have the resolution, that's all referred, that's all we need at this present time. Now, Senator Syas, it is the Chair's understanding that you're moving to suspend the rules in order for this to be considered at the same time you consider the other one. I think that would clear us and I think we need a rule suspension in order to do it.

SENATOR SYAS: I so move.

PRESIDENT: All right. Now, Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER: I'm going to not object, Senator Syas. I'm going to agree and like what you did, you were trying to make a substantive change, I.....

wasn't. I was merely trying to throw a piece of paper on the desk that we could use. So I won't treat you as you treated me.

PRESIDENT: Well, gentlemen. Senator Whitney. Motion is to suspend the rules and so that Senator Syas can hold a hearing on this particular constitutional amendment. Wait, just a minute, Senator Whitney has the floor, Senator Syas.

SENATOR WHITNEY: Mr. President, I'd like to have or ask Senator Syas a question.
